J. R. D. Irvine MASTER of the BERENGARIA, from SOUTHAMPTON, do employed by the owners thereof, to make a physical and mental examination of each and all of the aliens named in the foregoing Lists or Manifest Sheets, 9 in number, and that from the report of said surgeon and from my own investigation, I believe that no one of said aliens is of any of the classes excluded from admission into the United States by section three of the Immigration Act, and that also, according to the best of my knowledge and belief, the information in said Lists or Manifests concerning each of said aliens named therein is correct and true in every respect.

INSTRUCTIONS FOR FILLING ALIEN MANIFESTS

Separate sheets should be prepared for each port at which passengers embark.

Column 2 (Head-tax status).—Steamship lines should make no entries in this column. The space is for use of Government officials only.

Column 4 (Age).—The answer in this column should be expressed in years or months, the latter applying only to those under 1 year of age.

Column 5 (Sex).—The entry should be either M (male) or F (female).

Column 6 (Married or single).—The answer should be M (married), S (single), Wd (widowed), or D (divorced).

Column 7 (Calling or occupation).—The entry should describe as accurately as possible the occupation, trade, or profession of each alien arrival, as, for example: Civil engineer, stationary engineer, locomotive engineer, mining engineer, brass polisher, steel polisher, iron molder, wood turner, etc., and not simply as engineer, polisher, molder, turner, or other indefinite designations.

A distinction should be made between farmers and farm laborers, regardless of the amount of money shown, as follows:

A farmer is one who operates a farm, either for himself or for others.

A farm laborer is one who works on a farm for the man who operates it.

Steamship companies should make this distinction on the manifests, and corrections should be made, if necessary, by inspectors and registry clerks during the personal examination of alien arrivals.

Column 8 (Able to read and write).—This column is subdivided and contains the following question: "Read what language [or, if exemption is claimed, upon what ground]." In answering this question the language or dialect the alien is able to read should be stated. If alien is unable to read and claims exemption from the reading requirement, the ground for such exemption should be given.

Column 9 (Nationality).—Question 9 should be construed to mean the country of which alien is a citizen or subject.

Column 10 (Race or people).—See list of races printed on back of this sheet. The entry should show the race or people as given in said list.

Special attention should be paid to the distinction between race and the country of which citizen or subject, country of last permanent residence, and country of birth, and manifests should be carefully revised by inspectors and registry clerks in this regard. For instance, "France" appearing under the head of country does not mean "French" by race or people, and, similarly, "French" appearing under the head of race or people does not mean "France" by country. An Irish, German, or Hebrew alien by race might properly come under the heading of England, Switzerland, or any other country. In this connection the following distinctions should be especially observed:

CUBAN.

The term "Cuban" refers to the Cuban people (not Negroes).

WEST INDIAN.

"West Indian" refers to the people of the West Indies other than either Cubans or Negroes.

SPANISH AMERICAN.

"Spanish American" refers to the people of Central and South America of Spanish descent.

AFRICAN (BLACK).

"African (black)" refers to the African Negro, whether coming from Cuba or other islands of the West Indies, North or South America, Europe, or Africa. Any alien with admixture of blood of the African Negro should be classified under this heading.

ITALIAN (NORTH).

The people who are native to the basin of the River Po in northern Italy (i. e., compartments of Piedmont, Lombardy, Venetia, and Emilia) and their descendants, whether residing in Italy, Switzerland, Austria-Hungary, or any other country, should be classed as "Italian (north)." Most of these people speak a Gallic dialect of the Italian language.

ITALIAN (SOUTH).

The people who are native to that portion of Italy south of the basin of the River Po (i. e., compartments of Liguria, Tuscany, the Marches, Umbria, Rome, the Abruzzi and Molise, Campania, Apulia, Basilicata, Calabria, Sicily, and Sardinia) and their descendants should be classed as "Italian (south)."

Column 11 (Last permanent residence).—Actual or an intended residence of one year shall constitute permanent residence. The last country in which alien resided with the intention of remaining one year or more shall be the last permanent residence regardless of length of actual residence therein. The entries in column 11 should show the country and city or town of last permanent residence. It is important for statistical purposes that steamship companies accurately show country of last permanent residence independent of country of temporary residence, country of birth, nationality, or race.

Country of last permanent residence of aliens who are permanent residents of the United States and are returning from a visit abroad should be recorded "United States."

Column 12 (Name and complete address of nearest relative or friend in country whence alien came).—The entry should give name and address of such relative. If no such relative living, give name and address of friend.

Column 13 (Final destination).—The answer to this question shall show the intended future permanent residence. An intended residence of one year shall constitute permanent residence. The entry should show definitely the place (city or town) of intended future permanent residence, if within the United States; country, if outside the United States.

Column 14 (Whether having a ticket to such final destination).—The answer should be either Yes (ticket) or No (no ticket).

Column 15 (By whom was passage paid).—The entry should show definitely by whom passage was paid, as self; husband, father, brother, or other relative; friend; steamship company, etc.

Column 17 (Whether in possession of $50, and if so, how much).—The answer should give in each case (individual or family) the exact amount of money shown. Money brought by the head of a family should not be divided among the several members of the family.

Column 18 (Whether ever before in the United States; and if so, when and where).—The entries should show whether or not (Yes or No) in the United States before; and if so, the year (or period of years) and place, as, 1894-1897, Philadelphia.

Column 19 (Whether going to join relative or friend; and if so, what relative or friend).—The answer should show whether going to join either a relative or friend; and if so, what relative or friend, with name and complete address.

Columns 20 to 23.—These questions are self-explanatory and the answers, like all others on the sheet, are subject to revision by inspection officers in the examination of aliens. However, in answering question 26, if alien has been deported within one year and the Secretary of Labor has authorized him to reapply for admission, the authority for such reapplication should be given.

AFFIDAVIT OF SURGEON

There is a small, but interesting, collection of papers in the library of the University of Toronto, which are the property of the University of Toronto. They are the papers of the late Professor John G. Thompson, who was a member of the faculty of the University of Toronto from 1887 to 1895. The papers are arranged in a series of boxes, and are of great value to the library. They include a large number of letters, and a number of other documents, which are of great interest to the history of the University of Toronto. U.S. Patent 5,711,000, issued March 18, 1998, to the inventor of the present invention, describes a method of determining the relative concentration of a component in a mixture by measuring the change in the refractive index of the mixture as a function of the concentration of the component. The method involves measuring the refractive index of the mixture at a first concentration of the component, and then measuring the refractive index of the mixture at a second concentration of the component. The difference between the two refractive index measurements is then used to determine the relative concentration of the component in the mixture.

It is representative of Mediterranean, Continental, Tertiary and Quaternary fossil assemblages, especially bearing in mind the morphological similarity to the fossil assemblage known as "Group 14" (Gallard 1967).¹ Most of these fossils appear to reflect animals in the lower Abstract—The authors examined the effects of a 12-week training program on the cardiovascular and metabolic responses to a 10-min, 100% maximal aerobic power (MAP) test. The subjects were 10 sedentary, middle-aged men. The training program consisted of three sessions per week, each lasting 30 min. The first session was a familiarization session, and the remaining two sessions were training sessions. The training sessions consisted of a 10-min MAP test followed by a 20-min recovery period. The MAP test was performed at a constant power output of 100% MAP. The metabolic responses to the MAP test were measured by indirect calorimetry. The cardiovascular responses to the MAP test were measured by heart rate (HR) and blood pressure (BP). The metabolic responses to the MAP test were measured by oxygen consumption (VO₂) and energy expenditure (EE). The cardiovascular responses to the MAP test were measured by HR and BP. The metabolic responses to the MAP test were measured by VO₂ and EE. The authors found that the 12-week training program had no significant effect on the cardiovascular and metabolic responses to the MAP test. The authors concluded that a 12-week training program of three sessions per week, each lasting 30 min, had no significant effect on the cardiovascular and metabolic responses to a 10-min, 100% MAP test.

MISSY RICH

MS. A. 9. 2. 10

2 B

Handwritten text in a cursive script, likely a letter or a manuscript page. The text is written in dark ink on aged paper. The handwriting is fluid and characteristic of the 18th or 19th century. The page is divided into several lines by horizontal ruling. The text is mostly illegible due to the quality of the scan and the cursive nature of the script. There are some recognizable words and phrases, such as "My dear Sir" and "I am very much obliged to you for the trouble you have taken in sending me the enclosed." The text appears to be a formal letter or a business correspondence.

Handwritten notes and signatures in the middle of the page.

INSTRUCTIONS FOR FILLING ALIEN MANIFESTS

Separate sheets should be prepared for each port at which passengers embark.

Column 2 (Head tax status).—Steamship lines should make no entries in this column. The space is for use of Government officials only.

Column 3 (Age).—The answer in this column should be expressed in years or months, the latter applying only to those under 1 year of age.

Column 4 (Sex).—The entry should be either M (male) or F (female).
Column 5 (Married or single).—The answer should be M (married) or S (single). W (widowed) or D (divorced).

Column 6 (Calling or occupation).—The entry should describe as accurately as possible the occupation, trade, or profession of each alien listed, as, for example: Civil engineer, stationary engineer, locomotive engineer, mining engineer, house painter, steel painter, iron moulder, wood turner, etc., and not merely as engineer, painter, moulder, turner, or other indefinite designations.

A distinction should be made between farmers and farm laborers, regardless of the amount of money shown, as follows:

A farmer is one who operates a farm, either for himself or for others.

A farm laborer is one who works on a farm for the man who operates it.

Steamship companies should make this distinction on the manifests, and no entries should be made, if necessary, by inspectors and registry clerks during the personal examination of passengers.

Column 7 (Place of birth and date of birth).—This column is subdivided and contains the following questions: Read what language [or, if exception is found, upon what principle?] in answering this question the language or dialect the alien is said to use should be stated. If also is unable to read and claims exemption from the reading requirement, the grounds for such exemption should be given.

Column 8 (Language).—Question 8 should be construed to mean the country of which alien is a native or subject.

Column 9 (Place of birth).—See list of names printed on back of this sheet. The entry should show the race or people as given in said list.

Special attention should be paid to the distinction between race and the country of which citizens or subjects, country of last permanent residence, and country of birth, and residence should be correctly stated by inspectors and registry clerks in this regard. For instance, "France" appearing under the head of country does not mean "French" as race or people, and, conversely, "French" appearing under the head of race or people does not mean "France" as country. At birth, German, or Austrian citizen by race might come to reside under the heading of England, Switzerland, or any other country. In this connection the following distinctions should be especially observed:

Column 10 (Place of birth).—See list of names printed on back of this sheet. The entry should show the race or people as given in said list.

Column 11 (Place of birth).—See list of names printed on back of this sheet. The entry should show the race or people as given in said list.

Column 12 (Place of birth).—See list of names printed on back of this sheet. The entry should show the race or people as given in said list.

Column 13 (Place of birth).—See list of names printed on back of this sheet. The entry should show the race or people as given in said list.

Column 14 (Place of birth).—See list of names printed on back of this sheet. The entry should show the race or people as given in said list.

ITALIAN (NORTH)

The people who are native to the basin of the River Po in northern Italy (i. e., compartments of Piedmont, Lombardy, Veneto, and Emilia) and their descendants, whether residing in Italy, Switzerland, Austria-Hungary, or any other country, should be classed as "Italian (north)". Most of these people speak a Gothic dialect or the Italian language.

ITALIAN (SOUTH)

The people who are native to that portion of Italy south of the basin of the River Po (i. e., compartments of Liguria, Tuscany, the Marches, Calabria, Rome, the Abruzzi and Molise, Campania, Apulia, Basilicata, Calabria, Sicily, and Sardinia) and their descendants should be classed as "Italian (south)".

Column 11 (Last permanent residence).—Actual or an intended residence of one year shall constitute permanent residence. The last country in which alien resided with the intention of remaining one year in future shall be the last permanent residence regardless of length of actual residence therein. The entries in column 11 should show the country and city or town of last permanent residence. It is important for statistical purposes that steamship companies accurately show country of last permanent residence independent of country of temporary residence, country of birth, nationality, or race.

Country of last permanent residence of aliens who are permanent residents of the United States and are returning from a visit abroad should be recorded "United States."

Column 12 (Name and complete address of nearest relative as found in country whence alien came).—The entry should give name and address of such relative. If no such relative living, give name and address of friend.

Column 13 (Place destination).—The answer to this question shall show the intended future permanent residence. An intended residence of one year shall constitute permanent residence. The entry should show definitely the place (city or town) of intended future permanent residence, if within the United States, country if outside the United States.

Column 14 (Whether having a ticket to such last destination).—The answer should be either Yes (ticket) or No (no ticket).

Column 15 (By what means passenger has).—The entry should show definitely by whom passage was paid, or was guaranteed, ticket, brother, or other relative; friend, steamship company, etc.

Column 17 (If father in possession of $20 and if son has money).—The answer should give in each case (individual or family) the exact amount of money shown. Money brought by the head of a family should not be divided among the several members of the family.

Column 18 (If father was before in the United States, and if so, when and where).—The entries should show whether or not (Yes or No) in the United States, before and if so, the year (or period of years) and place, as, 1894-1897, Philadelphia.

Column 19 (If father going to join relatives or friends, and if so, what relative or friend).—The answer should show whether going to join either a relative or friend, and if so, what relative or friend, with name and complete address.

Columns 20 to 23.—These questions are self-explanatory and the answers, like all others on the sheet, are subject to revision by inspection officers in the examination of aliens. However, in answering question 20, if alien has been deported within one year and the Secretary of Labor has authorized him to reapply for admission, the authority for such reapplication should be given.

The purpose of this paper is to present a new method for the analysis of data from a randomized controlled trial. The method is based on the use of a generalized linear model and is applicable to a wide range of data types. The method is described in detail and its properties are discussed. The method is applied to a set of data from a randomized controlled trial and the results are compared with those obtained from other methods.

Appendix A: Data from the Randomized Controlled Trial

The data from the randomized controlled trial are presented in Table A.1. The table shows the results of the trial for each of the two groups. The first column shows the dose, the second column shows the response, and the third column shows the standard deviation. The data are presented for each of the two groups, and the results are compared with those obtained from other methods.

1. The purpose of this study is to determine the effect of the treatment on the response of the subjects to the test. The results of the study are presented in the following table.

2. The results of the study are presented in the following table. The table shows the mean response of the subjects to the test for each group. The 'Treatment' group shows a significantly higher mean response than the 'Control' and 'Comparison' groups.

Group	Mean Response	Standard Deviation	Significance
Control	10.0	1.5
Treatment	25.0	2.0
Comparison	10.0	1.5

3. The results of the study are presented in the following table. The table shows the mean response of the subjects to the test for each group. The 'Treatment' group shows a significantly higher mean response than the 'Control' and 'Comparison' groups.

There is obviously great risk in assuming that based on the data available for women, the same assumptions could be made about men. Women tend to add to their education and training as they progress in their careers, so that the opportunity to continue to learn is an important part of their career development. This is not necessarily true for men.

10. The Borrower hereby shall be obligated and agrees to indemnify to the Lender, its assigns, successors, transferees, guarantors, agents, attorneys, and all persons claiming the benefit of this promissory note, and shall, in no manner be bound from the note, any act of change of any number of names, names and shall not be subject to any claim and be protected by the name of the principal obligor and officers of the same.

But, if, then, upon review of any tract by the United States Army sent through post to me, instead of the Army of the United States, attention is drawn to the fact that the Government is not making the best use of the post and parcel facilities. The parcels are so numerous that they must, during the holidays, be sent out half full in the common way, with nothing but very important papers, and everything else in a sort of loose, haphazard way, just as it comes in. As a result of such haphazardness, a considerable number of parcels are lost, and before the arrival of any parcels, either in the hands of those entitled to receive them, or in those to whom they are consigned, there is some uncertainty as to the contents. All this is entirely unnecessary, and it is a disservice to the Government to send parcels in this way. It is the duty of the Government to make sure that parcels are sent in a safe and secure manner, and before the departure of the ship, parcel is sent by the Government, and before the departure of the ship, parcel is sent by the Government, and before the departure of the ship, parcel is sent by the Government.

There is, however, evidence that the frequency of training and cognitive content used in assessment are also being taken into account and taken into the development of assessment tools for the world of learning (4). There are a few more things to be considered in order for the assessment to be a truly useful assessment.
